

OUTREACH AND SOCIAL RELIEF PROGRAMME

Building relationships with our clients is very important to MES. Opportunities for motivational counselling are created through outreaches to the streets where we meet our clients where they are at. Relationships with the homeless community assist MES to:

- Being aware of our clients' needs
- Inform the community of services available to them
- Give meaningful input that informs decision-making affecting the homeless community

SERVICES

- Daily outreaches.
- Thursday night soup outreaches.
- Prayer and counselling.
- Referrals to MES services.
- Facilitating ID applications
- Social relief to clients in dire need.
- Social events.

HOW TO GET INVOLVED

- Donating toiletries.
- Donating food parcels.
- Volunteers to spend time with the homeless.
- Visit our website www.mes.org.za for the latest needs list.
